AUTHORIZATION - This application must have all signatures for students to be admitted and it includes a release which may affect your rights. Please read it carefully.

The Forum for Young Albertans, a non-profit, registered society in Alberta, makes an educational program about Government available to high school students throughout Alberta.

It is understood that the Forum for Young Albertans ("Forum") cannot be held responsible for any "Act of God" or unforeseen incident that might occur on the part of any commercial or private carrier from the point of origin to Edmonton, Alberta and return. Forum shall not be liable or responsible for any injury, loss, damage or delay resulting from any act or neglect or any person or any company whose services are retained by Forum for the benefit of the program participants, including but not limited to Universities, restaurants, or transportation companies. Further, Forum cannot be held responsible for any act, error or omission on the part of any program participants. Additional expenses, if incurred under any of these circumstances, must be borne by the program participant.

It is understood that the Forum for Young Albertans or any members of its Board of Directors and/or Board of Trustees cannot be held responsible for any discipline problem encountered with a student. Any student possessing or using drugs or alcohol, violating curfew, entering a room of a member of the opposite sex, or behaving in any manner inconsistent with Forum standards or local, provincial or federal laws will be immediately dismissed from the program. The reason for this dismissal will be made known to the proper persons, and the parents will be notified of the return travel arrangements of the student. If a student is dismissed from the program for disciplinary reasons, he or his family will assume all financial responsibility for returning him from point of dismissal to his home.

For health and safety of every participating student, the Forum reserves the right during the entire program to conduct room inspections to insure student compliance with stated Program rules and regulations.

While attending the Forum, if a student is in need of emergency hospital treatment, the parent's signature below constitutes the necessary permission for such treatment. Any medical expenses will be the responsibility of the parents. It is to be understood that if a medical doctor recommends that a student be sent home because of illness or injury while attending the Forum for Young Albertans, the parents will be notified immediately, appropriate travel arrangements will be made, and any additional travel costs will be paid by the parents.

The Forum will not be held responsible for loss or damage to student's luggage or personal belongings.

The Forum also reserves the right to change or modify a program itinerary either before or after a class is scheduled to begin.

It is further understood that in consideration of the acceptance of the application of the student for admission to the academic program, the parents or guardians and student hereby waive and release any and all claims for damages (whether for personal injury, death, illness, property damage and/or property loss) howsoever caused, and whether caused by negligence of the Forum for Young Albertans or its trustees, directors, executives, employees, agents or volunteers or otherwise, both for themselves and their heirs, executors, legal representatives, successors and assigns, which they may have arising from or related in any way to the academic program sponsored by the Forum for Young Albertans. In particular, but without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the parents or guardians and student hereby release from all liability, and agree to indemnify and save harmless from all liability the Forum for Young Albertans and its trustees, directors, executives, employees, agents and volunteers.

Each of the Undersigned has carefully read all of the above statements and, with full understanding of the terms, consents to the participation of _____ in accordance with the standards, rules and regulations of the Forum for Young Albertans.
